Five bedrooms give this Junction City home serious flexibility, and the finished basement adds even more room to spread out. Set on two floors with 2,016 square feet, 931 Cypress St. also includes a new shed for extra storage right in the backyard. Behind the scenes, the big-ticket items are already handled: the roof is just 5 years old, and both the HVAC system and water heater were replaced 2 years ago. With 2 bathrooms and a 1-car garage rounding things out, this is a well-maintained home ready for its next chapter.
